Description

A liveaboard dive trip in Sudan is just the thing if you want to follow in the footsteps of Jacques Cousteau and Hans Hass—undisturbed, without other boats, and far away from the crowds. Divers who love sharks, manta rays, shipwrecks, and pristine reefs, in particular, will find Sudan a true paradise.

Sanganeb, Sa'ab Rumi, Angarosh, Abu Fanadir—for anyone who has ever seen them, these evocative names will linger in the memory for a long time. On a liveaboard in Sudan, no one needs to worry about missing out on anything. Sudan offers dives with hammerhead sharks, gray reef sharks, huge schools of barracuda and mackerel, and herds of buffalohead fish—all at the same time, on a single reef! And with a little luck, you might even spot manta rays and silvertip sharks.

More information

Sudan borders Egypt to the north and the Red Sea to the northeast. Sudan has virtually no tourist infrastructure comparable to that of Egypt, for example. Therefore, careful planning of your liveaboard trip is essential. To help you get the most out of your diving vacation, Omneia will handle the entire travel package upon request: from flights and transfers to the complete liveaboard trip in Sudan!
