Description

Another highlight and a famous dive site in the Maldives. The reef top lies at a depth of 10–12 meters. The reef drops off steeply to 40 meters, and the walls feature overhangs of varying sizes. The main attraction is undoubtedly the immense abundance of fish, ranging from large to small. Grey and whitetip reef sharks, various species of mackerel, and tuna that gather to hunt large schools of fusiliers. But there are also sea turtles, Napoleon wrasse, snappers, and surgeonfish to marvel at. A MUST for every diver!!!
