Guraidhoo Corner promises divers a drift dive of the fastest kind! The reef drops off steeply to great depths on the outer edge of the atoll. When the current is flowing in, you can spot gray reef sharks, eagle rays, tuna, and mobula rays in the blue water; on the reef itself, you'll see large schools of snappers, fusiliers, napoleon wrasses, and stingrays.

Description

Guraidhoo Corner promises divers a drift dive of the fastest kind! The reef drops off steeply to great depths on the outer edge of the atoll. When the current is flowing in, you can spot gray reef sharks, eagle rays, tuna, and mobula rays in the blue water; on the reef itself, you'll see large schools of snappers, fusiliers, napoleon wrasses, and stingrays. The current here can be extremely strong, but you'll be rewarded with an unforgettable dive!
