Description

The perfect safari for divers who enjoy diving far away from the crowds. Wrecks and new dive sites have recently been discovered in the Suez Canal near Ras Gharib. A true paradise for lovers of sea cucumbers, nudibranchs, tubeworms, and more—endless in variety. Another special highlight are the dives at the rarely visited wreck of the S.S. Turkia. On this diving trip in Egypt's northern Red Sea, there are many engine rooms to explore and good chances of seeing dolphins. You can find an exciting report on the S.S. Turkia here.

Which dive sites we actually visit will also depend on current weather conditions.
