A new tour... a new adventure. This tour is an adventurous experience on the border with Sudan. Elba Reef is one of the last reefs visited by liveaboard dive boats in the Red Sea. The border with Sudan runs behind this reef, so it's possible to dive in Sudan as long as you cross the border underwater. The tour is the ultimate in just about everything the Red Sea has to offer.

Description

A new tour... a new adventure.

This tour is an adventurous experience on the border with Sudan.

Elba Reef is one of the last reefs visited by liveaboard dive boats in the Red Sea. The border with Sudan runs behind this reef, so it's possible to dive in Sudan as long as you cross the border underwater.

The tour is the ultimate in just about everything the Red Sea has to offer. Sightings of large fish are very likely; giant gorgonians await our divers at Elba Reef, and sightings of whale sharks are not uncommon along the way.
